INTRODUCTORY NOTE TO HISTORY SERIES

This is the first of a series of bulletins reproducing historical material not readily accessible. The New York state library has over 250,000 manuscripts from which selections will be made of the matter most frequently in demand not only by historians but by genealogists, members of patriotic societies and others who in recent years are showing so much added interest in everything pertaining to our early history. The pamphlet form of the bulletins has been adopted instead of the costly large volume, as in most cases the inquirer finds what he needs in the pamphlet without incurring the expense of the book. As fast as enough bulletins are printed to make a volume they will be bound together, with suitable contents and indexes. It is thought that we can in this way with a minimum of expense make our historical treasures more widely available.

SUPPLEMENTARY LIST OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

PREFACE

Since the publication of the Names of persons for whom marriage licenses were issued by the secretary of the province of New York previous to 1784, Albany 1860, to which this volume is a supplement, there have been found three thin folio volumes of marriage bonds which have been bound as v. 41 of the series of Marriage bonds. Of this volume p. 1-66 cover the years 1752-53, p. 67-144 the years 1755-56, and p. 145-240 the year 1758. Some of these names were printed by E. B. O'Callaghan in the New York genealogical and biographical record, October 1871, 2:194-200, but they are all entered in this list as in Marriage bonds, v. 41. For an account of marriage licenses and description of the original volumes of Marriage bonds see introduction to the Names of persons for whom marriage licenses were issued previous to 1784.

The names in the present supplement have been obtained from the following sources:

- 1 Marriage bonds, v. 41, above mentioned.
- 2 Addenda on p. 478-80 of the volume entitled Names of persons for whom marriage licenses were issued previous to 1784, Albany 1860. This list of addenda contains names occurring in the original volumes of Marriage bonds and overlooked in the preparation of the printed volume or there given with a different spelling.

3 List of 29 marriages 1683-1751, from various volumes of New York archives, printed by B. Fernow in New York state library Report, 1884, 67:35-36. Part of this list is also printed with some variations in New York genealogical and biographical record, 1874, 5:174 in a communication from J. J. Latting.

4 List of Staten Island marriages in New York colonial manuscripts, 82:62, where the list is accompanied by the following letter from Gov. Hardy to Rev. Richard Charlton of Staten Island :

SIR

Yesterday Major Taylor of your Island came with a Complaint to me, that you had married John Le Conte Jun<sup>r</sup> Son of Judge Le Conte, without a Lyeense, he told me that after it was spoke of there, you sent the 30/ you reeed, back to M<sup>r</sup> Le Conte, and desired him to go himself to the Office for a Lyeense which he did and obtained one two days after he had been married by you. These he said are Facts he can prove, and which he said confirmed their Suspicious that you had marryed many others without any License. For w<sup>ch</sup> he said he was determined to proseeute you. I interposed by telling him I would write to you before he proceeded any further: he answer'd 'twas well, but if you did not produce either a Lyeense in the Case of those whom he & others thought you had marryed without any, or return y<sup>e</sup> 30/ in every Case so circumstanced they wou'd by no means be satisfied. He gave me a Paper containg y<sup>e</sup> Names of the Persons they imagine have been marryed without a License, a Copy of w<sup>ch</sup> I enclose you. Justice Rezeau came with Major Taylor, but I did not see him. About an hour or two after this application to me, I reeed your Letter from your Son, and had done what I probably shou'd have done, if I had received your Letter before I saw M<sup>r</sup> Taylor, whose resentment appears to be very strong agst you. You will undoubtedly take the most prudent Measnes on this Occasion, as if their Suspicious are true or false, it will apparently be of some consequence to your Character.

I am &c

M<sup>r</sup> Charlton

The list referred to was printed in the New York state library Report, 1884, 67:35, and also in the New York genealogical and biographical record, 1894, 25:95-96, though in the latter case it seems to have been based on another copy.

5 List of marriage licenses, 1691-93 from Records of wills, v. 4, in the surrogate's office. New York, communicated by J. J. Latting to New York genealogical and biographical record, 1873, 4:31.

6 List of New York marriage licenses granted by Lord Cornbury, 1703-6, which are recorded in an old book of records in New York city and were communicated by John S. Gantier to New York genealogical and biographical record, 1870, 1:3, 13; 1871, 2:25-28.

7 New York marriage licenses, 1692-1701 in the surrogate's office. New York, communicated by E. B. O'Callaghan to New York genealogical and biographical record, 1871, 2:141; 1872, 3:91-93.

Although the present supplementary list is properly limited to the record of marriages in the state archives, we add for the assistance of genealogists and students of early New York history, the following references to other lists of New York marriages recorded in the New York genealogical and biographical record. Lists containing only a few names are not included.

—Reformed Dutch church at Harlem, 1816-36, 8:41-43.

—Society of friends at New York and vicinity, 1663-1766, 6:97-107, 192-93.

All the records referred to are in the New York state library except the Deeds which are in the office of the secretary of state.
